

LTC Keith Muschalek: Biography and Duty Description

Security Assistance Program Manager for Ministry of Defense

LTC Muschalek was commissioned a finance officer in the US Army in 1987 and has served at all levels of Army Finance from detachment to major Finance Command at the theater level. He commanded the 106th Finance Battalion in Germany and upon inactivation of the battalion became the Deputy Commander of the 266th Finance Command and Director, US Army Europe Pay Center of Excellence in Kaiserslautern, Germany. His overseas tours include four tours in Germany, and Japan, Saudi Arabia, and Iraq. He is married to the former Robin Broughton of New Braunfels, Texas and has two children, Mason 12 and Madison 10.

Duty Description:

Keith serves as the Security Assistance Officer for the Ministry of Defense, managing the day-to-day activities of a $1 billion Army program involved with procuring commercial cars and trucks, armored fighting vehicles, and other items necessary for the force generation and sustainment of the Iraqi Army and the Ministry of Defense. The Iraqi FMS program began only two years ago and is now one of the largest FMS program in the world.